Good Evening,

As news regarding the corona-virus threat continues to evolve, we wanted to reiterate and update you on the current policies we have in place to preempt exposure within our our school community.

Please take a moment to review the attached BCS health update and review the link for appropriate hand washing guidelines. <https://www.cdc.gov/handwashing/when-how-handwashing.html>

We have taken a few extra steps on campus to allow students ample time to wash their hands prior to eating, and for additional cleaning techniques to be used at the end of each school day.

We do not believe there is need for panic; however, we want to do our part in being proactive in keeping our community healthy. Therefore, if you have plans to travel out of the country during Spring Break (or at any time during the next few months), please review the attached policy the school will be following as of today, February 27, 2020.

Sincerely,

Melanie Humenansky
