

AP WORLD HISTORY Summer reading assignments

(There are a total of 2 books to read!)

2022-2023 school year

Journal and responses for assignments #1 and #2 will be due the first FRIDAY after start of school (August 12, 2022). Students who enroll in AP US HISTORY later than August 5 will need to contact Mr. Dabrowski for alternate due dates.

#1: Choose ONE book from the following list to read in its entirety

The Kitchen Boy: A Novel of the Last Tsar by Robert Alexander (RUSSIAN REVOLUTION/FICTION)

Cry the Beloved Country by Alan Payton (SOUTH AFRICA/APARTHIED/FICTION)

The Janissary Tree by Jason Goodwin (OTTOMAN EMPIRE/MYSTERY/FICTION)

While reading, complete a reading journal for each chapter. You can use a spiral notebook, composition book or notebook paper stapled together and in a folder. Entries should be HANDWRITTEN and include the following (number each response as indicated below):

1. Name of the chapter or number (both The Janissary Tree and Cry the Beloved Country have very short chapters – you can combine up to 5 chapters for your responses).
2. At least 1-paragraph summary
3. Personal feelings about the chapter content – likes and dislikes, agreements and questions (include words or things you didn't know or had to look up)
4. Discuss the historical significance or connections of (in) the chapter. What happened that changed the course of the story or narrative? What broader historical meaning can you assign to the chapter – if any? What connections can you make to broader historic issues or events? What cultural connections/implications can you make or see in this chapter?

#2: Read the book A History of the World in 6 Glasses by Tom Standage (this book walks through the history of world using 6 beverages as a guide – it is a favorite book among many World History scholars)

HANDWRITE the following (see above assignment for acceptable journal types):

READING QUESTIONS: As you read, answer the following reading questions for each topic. Your answers need to be thorough, but not lengthy—3-4 sentences. Cite the page numbers in which you found the answers. Answer in complete sentences.

The text is organized in six sections that each considers a beverage and the time period during which that beverage was significant. Historians identify time periods in many different ways and they often disagree about the best way to identify a time period. Use the text to determine the time periods covered by each section of the text. (You may use specific dates or important events to identify the time period.)

Use the following examples as models:

A. WWII began in 1939 and ended in 1945. B. WWII began with Germany's invasion of Poland and ended with Japan's surrender to the United States.

Examples A and B date the same time period, but example A uses years while example B uses events to identify the time period that we commonly call WWII.
